

Effective Estuary Restoration Symposium

Blue Carbon and Fish Habitat Restoration

Tuesday, March 4, 2025
9:30AM - 12:30PM Pacific time
Virtual format

9:30	Welcome, introduction and background - Todd Zackey, Tulalip Tribes
9:45	Blue carbon sequestration along the U.S. West Coast: what we know - Melissa Ward, Windward Sciences
10:15	Carbon sequestration in the context of fish habitat restoration - Laura Brophy, Institute for Applied Ecology
10:45	Blue carbon sequestration in eelgrass habitat restoration - John Rybzyk, Western Washington University
11:15	Monitoring for blue carbon functions and the West Coast blue carbon database - Chris Janousek, Oregon State University
11:45	Case studies: Tools for understanding and assessing blue carbon - Adrian Laufer, Sea & Shore Solutions Tillamook Southern Flow Corridor - Colin Jones, Tillamook Estuaries Partnership Blue carbon challenges in a California coastal salt marsh - Monique Fountain, Elkhorn Slough National Estuarine Research Reserve
12:30	Wrap and next steps - Todd Zackey, Tulalip Tribes

Register for the symposium HERE

Learn more at pacificfishhabitat.org

